

Reading and Writing

Watch the story Handa's surprise.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ocnRQj89nK8>

Can you write about your favourite part of the story?

Can you write a list of all the fruits that are taken from Handa's basket?

At school we have been practising the sounds igh and oa. Can you spot any words with those sounds in, in your books?

Can you write a list of the words you find?

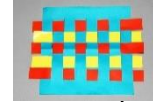

Can you write some sentences using those words?

Expressive Arts and Design

Use some junk model materials to make some equipment that will help you when you are on safari. It could be a camera, a pair of binoculars or even a model of a safari vehicle.

Can you use coloured paper to weave like the weaving on Handa's basket?

Can you turn a milk bottle into an elephant?

Communication and Language

Do you have any books that are set in the African Savanna? Talk to someone about what happens in the story.

If you could be any animal that lives in the Savanna which animal would you be and why?

Play this game with your family. Take turns to describe a safari animal and see who can guess the answer first

On Safari

Number and Shape Space & Measure

At school we have been working on doubling, remembering that we add the same number again. Can you teach someone at home how to double?

Why not have a go at the games below to practise:

Personal, Social & Emotional Development

At school we have been thinking about what worries. We read the story 'Worrysaurus' and then thought about things that we could think about, look at or do that would make us feel happy when we are worried.

Understanding the World

Watch these videos to find out more about the rainforest and animals you might find there.
